

2026

The Ian J Golding Memorial Award

Ian J Golding was a Principal from 1990 to 1997 who passed away suddenly in 1999.

This award is given to a Year 12 student who is the most civic minded student and has contributed widely to the school community, and possibly the wider Sarina community. The preference is for a student who has also shown a commitment towards supporting The Arts within the school and community.

The recipient will be selected by a panel of staff members and awarded on Presentation Night.

The selection committee, consisting of members of the school staff, will consider:

- Contribution to the school and/or wider community
- Support of fellow students
- Success in one or more cultural areas
