NB: The Education (General Provisions) Act 2006 (Qld) states that a child is of compulsory school age if the child is at least 6 years and 6 months, and less than 16 years.

A young person's compulsory participation phase starts when s/he stops being of compulsory school age and ends when the person gains a Certificate of Achievement, Senior Statement, Certificate III or Certificate IV or has participated in eligible options (recognised education or training program or course, offered by a recognised provider) for 2 years after the person stopped being of compulsory school age turns 17 years of age.
